KANSAS CITY PROFESSIONAL HORSEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as the Kansas City Professional Horsemen's Association is to inspire, encourage interest in, and regulate Hunter/Jumper competition in the Kansas City area.

To accomplish this mission our members, working together, will:

- Promote sportsmanship and assure fair competition.
- Make adequate and fair rules governing KCPHA competition and enforce them for the common benefit.
- Protect horses by adopting and enforcing rules set forth by the USEF regarding cruel, unsafe and/or un-sportsmanlike practices.
- Serve and promote the best interest of KCPHA competitions.
- Educate horsemen and the general public about equestrian sports.
- Expand and enhance the image of local equestrian sports competitions.
- To inspire positive citizenship traits in young riders by demonstrating and reinforcing positive horsemanship qualities.

KCPHA, ITS DIRECTORS, MEMBERS AND FINANCIAL SUPPORTERS DISCLAIM RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY LOSS, INJURY OR ACCIDENT SUSTAINED TO ANY PERSONS OR PERSONAL PROPERTY IN CONNECTION WITH KCPHA SANCTIONED EVENTS. COMPETITORS IN KCPHA SANCTIONED EVENTS COMPETE AT THEIR OWN RISK. AS STATED IN KANSAS LAW KS.A. 60-4001 THROUGH 60-40004. WARNING: UNDER KANSAS LAW, THERE IS NO LIABILITY FOR AN INJURY TO OR THE DEATH OF A PARTICIPANT IN DOMESTIC ANIMAL ACTIVITIES RESULTING FROM THE INHERENT RISKS OF DOMESTIC ANIMALACTIVITY. INCLUDES MISSOURI LAW.

UNITED STATES EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION, INC. rules will serve as a guideline. Kansas City Professional Horsemen's Association hereafter will be referred to as KCPHA.

This rulebook supersedes and replaces any rules, constitution or by-laws issued previously.

ORGANIZATION

Kansas City Professional Horsemen’s Association, otherwise known as KCPHA, was established in 1988 as an affiliate of Professional Horsemen’s Association of America, Inc., known as the PHA, to be a representative of the Kansas City area professional horse shows community.

Dues paid by Professional KCPHA members go to the Professional Horsemen’s Association of America, Inc. These dues are used for a $2500 death benefit for PHA members who have been in good standing for 5 consecutive years, payable to a named beneficiary, in the event of the death of a member within 5 years of membership a benefit of $1000 is payable to named beneficiary.

Dues paid to PHA also provide financial assistance from a fund established for children of Professional Members or Professional Members, the National PHA Hunter Seat Medal Class and PHA Junior Cup and the National Junior PHA Riding Scholarship Award.

PHA members who are in good standing for 20 years or over the age of 65 are exempt from payment of annual PHA dues.

The Board shall consist of professional or show members in good standing.

Use of dues paid to PHA is further out lined in the constitution and bylaws of the PHA, available through the KCPHA elected Board.

Dues paid to KCPHA by the members shall promote an annual awards program, sponsor Classics, sponsor events to inspire the horsemen of the Kansas City Area and support the principles set forth in the KCPHA Mission Statement.

Professional Members of KCPHA hold meetings every other month during the show season and more often if issues arise.

Professional membership shall elect officers, who determine the direction and control of all policy, business and affairs of KCPHA. Only Professional KCPHA members in good standing shall be eligible for nomination.

KCPHA may refer to the rules and guide lines of the United States Equestrian Federation, otherwise known as USEF, in resolving conflicts and in making decisions regarding KCPHA.

The Board shall have charge of the funds of KCPHA and keep a bank account for the running of the organization.

KCPHA professionals may call upon the amateur membership to help with organizational goals and missions.

SECTION I - INDIVIDUAL AND HORSE REGISTRATION

1. Registration in the KCPHA is open to anyone. Registration may be applied for by filing an application form with the Points Secretary. The KCPHA Rule Book for the current year is available on line or a member may request a hard copy of the KCPHA rule book by contacting a KCPHA trainer.
2. The KCPHA year commences on December 1st of each year. Dues become payable on that date and registrations expire the following November 30th. Anyone joining at any time during the membership year must pay the entire annual registration fee.
3. Individual membership is $50 and include one horse and rider nomination. Additional horses nominated are $5.00. Family memberships are $75 and include 3 horse and rider nominations. Barn memberships are $100 and include 7 horse nominations. Please pay by check.
4. It is necessary for the entry to be nominated in order to receive full points for the show season. Points will accrue from December 1st of each show year, provided the nomination is paid by March 1st of the show year. Otherwise, points will accrue from the date of the nomination. It is the responsibility of the rider to ascertain that the registration certificate has been completed.

5. The Points Secretary of KCPHA must be notified in writing of any change in a horse's name, and the horse must be re-registered under its new name. No fee will be charged for this service.
6. Horse show management will charge a $15.00 non-member fee to participants who are not current members of KCPHA.
7. Debts: Any person having an outstanding debt with a KCPHA show will not be allowed to show at another KCPHA show until the debt is resolved.

SECTION II - INDIVIDUAL AND HORSE DEFINITIONS

1. Adult or senior. An individual who has reached his or her 18th birthday as of December 1st of the current competition year.
2. Junior: An individual who has not reached his or her 18th birthday as of December 1st of the current competition year. The age of the individual on December 1st will be maintained throughout the entire competition year. Persons born on that date assume the greater age on that date. If a competition is in progress on any November 30th, the junior's age at the beginning of that competition will be maintained throughout.
3. Amateur: An individual who has reached his or her 18th birthday as of December 1st of the current competition year who has not engaged in accepting remuneration for riding, showing, training or giving instruction in equitation, showing or training as per current USEF Rule Book.
4. Age: The age of an individual on December 1st will be maintained throughout the entire competition year. Persons born on December 1st will assume the greater age on that date. If a competition is in progress on any November 30th, an individual's age at the start of the competition will be maintained throughout the competition.
5. Horse: The term horse as used in these rules denotes either a horse or a pony. When the term "Horse" or "Pony" is used or intended in the prize list where height is one of the qualifications of the class, the word "Horse" denotes animals over 14.2 hands.
6. Pony: Ponies are animals that do not exceed 14.2 hands.

7. Professional: An Individual who has reached his or her 18th birthday. Defined as any person who accepts remuneration for riding, showing, training, schooling, conducted riding lessons or instruction, as per the current USEF Rule Book.

SECTION III - HORSE SHOW MEMBERSHIP

1. The KCPHA Board of Directors will decide the awarding of show recognition and dates. Competition dates will be grandfathered provided the competition pays its dues prior to January 1.
2. Dues for each competition are $75 per competition day. Applications for show recognition must be forwarded to the Points Secretary in writing, specifying preferred date and including the name and address of the requester, and accompanied by competition dues.
3. The KCPHA recognizes horse shows in the Kansas City area, and surroundings areas on an individual basis. Shows may be recognized for KCPHA class points, Open points, or both.

SECTION IV - CONDUCT OF SHOWS

1. Any person showing in KCPHA shows should be familiar with its rules and regulations, including the rules of USEF.
2. KCPHA classes at shows recognized by the KCPHA will count toward KCPHA year-end awards. Designated Open classes at USEF shows recognized by KCPHA will count towards KCPHA Open year-end awards.
3. USEF rules will serve as a guideline, in the event of a conflict.
4. Show bills must designate KCPHA membership.
5. Judges should reside outside of a radius of 50 miles from the site of the show, with the exception that any USEF rated judge may judge one show per year. Jumper shows and classes are exempt from the 50 mile restriction. If a suitable judge cannot be found, professional members of USEF for at least the five preceding years may judge, mileage rule notwithstanding.
6. Courses should be of a standard expected of an USEF Horse Show. Please refer to the current USEF Rule Book for guidelines and standards.

7. A one-day show must have a minimum of 5 recognized divisions. A two-day show must have a minimum of nine recognized divisions. A division must have a minimum of two classes except for Training Jumper, which can have one or more classes.
8. Points may not count in classes where the class is worded improperly on show bill or prize list.
9. No horse or rider can show in any equitation class not to be judged. No schooling rounds or Hors Concours rounds (not to be judged) in Hunter classes over 2'. It is STRONGLY DISCOURAGED for classes under 2'. A schooling round in a Hunter class will only be allowed at the discretion of the Judge. The Judge will take into consideration number of entries and conditions of the situation in order to warrant a schooling round.
10. Results will be tabulated from 1st through 6th place. Reported results will include class name, horse, and rider. In addition, the number of horses competing in the first class of each hunter division as well as each equitation and jumper class must be indicated. A copy of the show bill and name of judge must also be included with the results. A penalty of $25 will be levied if results are not mailed to the Points Secretary within two weeks of the completion of the show.
11. Non-sportsman like conduct or cruelty to or abuse of a horse by any person at any KCPHA show is forbidden and renders the offender subject to penalty. The show management may bar the violators from further participation for the remainder of the show.
12. The Horse Show Management shall reserve the right to refuse an entry or to return an entry fee.
13. KCPHA shows failing to follow the rules of KCPHA will be subject to disciplinary action of the Board.
14. Management has the right to combine or split divisions as entries dictate. Refer to SEC VIII Points Rule 5 and to SEC VII Class Descriptions for division combinations.
15. Show managers are encouraged to arrange classes, at a two-day show, so that no show day is significantly longer than the other, and so that no show day lasts more than 10 hours. Holding all 2'3" and under classes on the first day, and all 2'6" and above classes on the second day, is encouraged.

SECTION V - ATTIRE AND EQUIPMENT

1. Protective headgear is required at all times when mounted anywhere on the show grounds. All riders must wear an ASTM approved helmet with harness attached and fastened properly when mounted as per current USEF rules.
2. All riders are required to use USEF approved protective headgear and riding boots (i.e. boots, jodhpur boots or paddock boots) when riding at KCPHA shows.
3. Clothing should be neat and conservative in color. When possible, entrants are encouraged to show in proper riding attire: boots, breeches, shirt with choker collar, and riding coat in addition to regulation riding helmet. If a riding coat is not worn, riders must wear a shirt with a collar or choker, neatly tucked into riding breeches. Modifications may be made due to weather.
4. Hunt seat saddles (astride or side saddle) and bridles are necessary for showing. Martingales are optional in classes over fences, but are not permitted in equitation on the flat or in under saddle classes.
5. Hair should be neat and worn so the number shows at all times.
6. Horses should be clean and neat. Braiding is optional.
7. Use of boots and bandages on a horse are prohibited in all Hunter Divisions. Exceptions may be made at the discretion of the show management.

SECTION VIII POINTS AND YEAR END SCORING

Points

1. KCPHA offers a yearly show rating under the regulations set forth below. The awards are presented at an annual banquet at the close of the show season. The purpose of these awards is to encourage participation at recognized shows
2. It is necessary for the entry to be nominated to receive full points for the show season. When a horse or rider is nominated points will only count from the date of nomination and points will not count for any shows competed in before such date.
3. Annual awards will not be given for divisions having less than two KCPHA entries. A division must be offered and filled in at least three KCPHA shows for an annual award to be given. These divisions will be combined for annual awards if less than three KCPHA entries. Pre-Adult/ Pre-children's, Junior hunter/Amateur hunter, & KCPHA Open hunter/ KCPHA Green hunter.

4. Points may not count in classes where the class is worded improperly on prize lists and/or show bills.
5. Points will not be given for a class having less than two entries in the first class of the division.
6. Horse show management has the right to combine divisions accordingly: Short/Long Stirrup, Pre-adult/ Pre-children's, Amateur/Children's Hunter, Junior/Amateur, & KCPHA Open/KCPHA Green.
7. A one-day show must have a minimum of 5 Recognized divisions. A two-day show must have a minimum of 9 Recognized divisions. A division must have a minimum of 2 classes except for Level 4/5 Jumper, which can have 1 or more classes.

Scoring for Year End Awards

1. 1st place / 7 points, 2nd / 5 points, 3rd / 4 points, 4th / 3 points, 5th / 2 points, 6th / 1 point. Multiple pinning of classes is allowed at the discretion of show management. There must be an equal number of under saddle sections and over fence sections in the event the class is multiple pinned.
2. The Points Secretary will maintain the point records of KCPHA and will compute the results of the show year. At the discretion of the Board, points will be posted at mid-year and later. Any questions should first be directed to the Executive Board. Final results will be announced at the awards dinner.
3. In Hunter Divisions, in the event of ties for year-end champion, the horse with the most points over fences will be adjudged the higher. If there still remains a tie, duplicate awards will be presented. There will be a champion, reserve champion and recognition to tenth place in each hunter division. For points to count there must be three exhibitors in first class of hunter divisions. An annual award will not be given for any division having been offered in less than three shows or having less than three entries.
4. In Equitation Divisions (except KCPHA Junior and Adult Medals), points earned in the same division will be totaled for the show season. There will be a champion, reserve champion, and recognition to tenth place in each division. In the event of a tie for year-end champion, the rider with the most points over fences will be determined the champion of the division. If a tie still remains, duplicate awards will be presented. For points to count there must be three exhibitors in a division. An annual award will not be given for any division having been offered in less than three shows or having less than three qualified KCPHA members in the division at the end of the show year.

5. The horse, pony or rider that accrues the most points in a single division with fences 2'6" and higher, excluding children's pony division, shall be eligible for High Point awarded for hunter, equitation and jumper divisions.

SPECIAL YEAR END AWARDS

1. Jackie Denslow Award - Awarded every year by the trainers of KCPHA to a junior member who shows outstanding sportsmanship and character. The Award is in honor of the memory of Jackie Denslow, who showed extraordinary quality of character and who tragically passed away as a junior rider.
2. Sonny-Local Hero Adult Perpetual Trophy - Sponsored by Mrs. Mary Gresham and Mrs. Debbie Borek. This award is in honor of their two horses, Sonny and Hero who taught them how to ride. KCPHA trainers award this trophy to a member who came to the sport as an adult and has stood out with a "Good Sport" spirit to overcome all the obstacles that learning how to ride entails.
3. Debbie Westler Award – Awarded to a parent or volunteer who deserves notice for their helpful spirit and actions at shows and at their home barn.
4. High Point Hunter – Awarded to the horse accumulating the most points in Hunter classes during the show year, not including Ground Poles.
5. High Point Jumper – Awarded to the horse accumulating the most points in Jumper classes during the year.
6. High Point Equitation – Awarded to the member accumulating the most points in Equitation classes during the year.
7. Open Points Awards – Awarded to the horse receiving the most points in USEF-rated hunter classes during the year; the horse receiving the most points in USEF-rated jumper classes during the year; and the member receiving the most points in USEF-rated equitation classes during the year. A separate nomination fee of $25 must be paid by each member in order to be eligible for Open Points Awards

SECTION IX SHOW MANAGER'S CHECK LIST

1. Get approved show date. If grand fathered date is desired, competition dues must be paid prior to January 1. Otherwise, applications for show recognition must be forwarded to the Points Secretary in writing, specifying preferred date and including the name and address of the requestor, and accompanied by the competition dues.
2. Obtain a judge. Judge must reside outside a 50-mile radius of horse show location, with the exception that any USEF rated judges may judge one show per year regardless of the mileage limit. Jumper shows and classes are exempt from the 50 mile restriction.
3. Obtain a course designer. Courses should be of a standard expected of an USEF Horse Show. (A list of suggested course designers may be obtained from KCPHA).
4. Order ribbons.
5. Consider obtaining liability insurance. KCPHA strongly recommends liability protection. You are not covered under any KCPHA insurance.
6. Make out show schedule. A one-day show must have a minimum of 5 recognized divisions. A two-day show must have a minimum of 9 Recognized divisions. A division must have a minimum of two classes except for Level 4/5 Jumper, which can have one or more classes. The awarding of division championships is optional.
7. Publish show bill. The show bill must indicate KCPHA recognition and entry fee structure, judge's name as well as dates, schooling times, show time and order of classes and map/directions to the show grounds. The show manager will be designated. An up-to-date membership mailing list will be available from the Points Secretary.
8. If requested, receive show package from KCPHA including:
 - a. Horse/rider KCPHA Membership forms
 - b. KCPHA Rule Books
 - c. Information sheet regarding required result information and timely submission of results
 - d. Information sheet regarding courses for pony classes with distances and heights included.

9. Within two weeks of show, mail results to Point Secretary. A $25 fine will be incurred for late submission of results.
10. Mail any completed horse/rider registration forms to Point Secretary.

KCPHA RESERVES THE RIGHT TO MAKE ANY CORRECTIONS TO THESE RULES, OR TO CHANGE ANY RULE(S) BY VOTE OF THE BOARD AT ANY TIME. RULE CHANGES SHALL BE POSTED ON THE KCPHA WEBSITE AND ON THE KCPHA FACEBOOK PAGE AS NOTIFICATION TO MEMBERS.
